Glittering on the shorefront of Wentworth Point peninsula right next to the ferry wharf at the shimmering residential benchmark Jewel complex, this refinery delivers an unrivaled waterfront living with ideal location and designer interiors to ensure the best of your comfort and enjoyment. Inviting North East sunlight into the living & dining space and two private bedrooms, this residence is drenched in gentle brightness throughout the day. Reflecting the designer's craftsmanship around the effortless open-plan interiors, the neutrally-toned, sophisticatedly-aligned details radiate with the golden sunbeam on the ground of timber tile flooring across the lounge room creating a cozy atmosphere with outstanding inclusions to establish the living experience of the highest standard. You will be engaged in the seamless internal space that flows gracefully from entry to the living space and out to the breezy balcony with a glimpse of waterview, as well as two generously spaced private bedrooms and additional space for home office/home decor. This is your chance to seize this benchmark property at one of Sydney's finest inner harbour.
