With a glorious aspect overlooking the water, a generous 148m/sq floorplan in the architecturally designed Gem Apartments captures uninterrupted views of the Melbourne cityscape and Port Phillip Bay. Impressively designed to take in the surrounding views from every vantage point, an open-plan layout offers superior living and entertaining, complemented by a stone gourmet kitchen boasting premium appliances and walk-in pantry. Expansive floor-to-ceiling glazing captures stunning water views in a living art landscape, whilst the balcony offers a seamless connection to the outdoors. Zoned for superior privacy, two generous bedrooms host walk-in robes with an impressive master boasting a luxe ensuite with deep, soaker bath, separate shower and access to a private balcony. A central bathroom, separate powder room and laundry round out the offering, with added highlights including split system air conditioning, plenty of storage, secure entry, car parking for two vehicles and storage cage. Embraced into the popular Williamstown lifestyle only metres from Point Gellibrand Coastal Heritage Park and an easy stroll from Williamstown Train Station, with Ferguson Street cafes and eateries, Williamstown Beach, Nelson Place and the Bay Trail all within easy reach and only 13kms from Melbourne CBD.
