This stunning historic period home situated on a large block, offering an enticing blend of charm and modern convenience. Situated in a central location, this property is surrounded by amenities that cater to every need, from prestigious schools and recreational parks to the bustling Sturt Street shopping precinct, hospitals, and supermarkets. As you step inside, you'll immediately feel at home in this stunning residence. Featuring three spacious bedrooms, this home exudes character with its gorgeous lead light windows, 11'6" ceilings adorned with original pressed metal ceilings, hallway fretwork, and ornate fireplace. The family-friendly floorplan boasts two separate living zones, providing ample space for relaxation and entertaining. The formal living area at the front of the home offers picturesque views of the beautifully kept front yard, while the second living space provides an ideal retreat for kids, leading onto an enclosed sunroom where you can relax and create a space of your own. The light-filled kitchen, complete with stainless-steel appliances, overlooks a verandah and paved courtyard, creating the perfect space to entertain family and friends. The bathroom has been updated and features a double vanity, while the European style laundry offers ample cupboard space. Shedding is a standout feature of this property, with a 5-car garage boasting a workshop, office, storage, and room for trailers or a caravan at the rear. Car accommodation is well-catered for with a long driveway leading to a single carport and lock-up garage. Outdoor enthusiasts will delight in the semi in-ground pool, providing the perfect oasis to enjoy during the summer months. Set on a generous 1015m² block with two street frontages, this property also holds great potential for future development (STCA). Additional features include central heating, ceiling fans throughout, a home security system, and two massive water tanks linked via pump to numerous water taps. Whether you're searching for a family home, a haven for tradespeople, or exploring STCA potential, this centrally located property offers a fantastic opportunity to embrace a lifestyle of comfort and convenience.
