Occupying a sublime corner position coupled with a sought-after northerly aspect, on offer is an ideal inner-city abode, enjoying large living spaces teamed with an exceptional balcony, overlooking Whitten Oval. Set atop beautiful engineered timber flooring, the open-plan living and dining area opens to a secluded balcony, spanning the entire width of the residence. The pristine kitchen showcases quality appliances, including induction cooktop, under-bench oven and dishwasher, complemented by stone benchtops, LED lighting and an abundance of storage throughout. Tucked away from the action to promote rest and rejuvenation, the palatial master bedroom is superbly fitted with plush carpet underfoot and a built-in robe, while the central sparkling bathroom comprises a frameless glass shower, sleek toilet and vanity. Choose between two beautiful colour schemes to personalise your home, with the option of crisp white and natural wood, embodying a Scandi feel, or rich indigo cabinetry for an edgy, contemporary feel. Enjoy exclusive residents' access to the central podium level terrace, superbly equipped with seating, a barbecue, yoga space and manicured gardens, complemented by the breathtaking backdrop of the ever-changing Melbourne city skyline. Surrounded by convenience, Crossley & Bourke's inner-city location is undergoing revival, boasting a range of old-world and new-school amenities, located opposite West Footscray Railway Station, Barkly Street Village brimming with cafes and eateries, renowned Footscray Market and the Maribyrnong River Trail.
