On the edge of Fairfield this exceptional Victorian bluestone dwelling radiates a timeless sense of refinement and reminds of a bygone era. Beautifully preserved, the interior features lofty ceilings, multiple open fireplaces, detailed cornices and ceiling roses and original polished timber floors. Generously proportioned the wide central hallway leads to four double bedrooms, the main with ensuite and walk in robe, large central bathroom with separate clawfoot bath, formal dining (opt 5th bed), plus open plan well-kept kitchen, and meals area, living linking to the undercover alfresco dining and large established garden. Other highlights include off street parking, storage, separate laundry, workshop/store, gas ducted heating, electric panel heating and split system heating and cooling. In a sought-after residential location, it is close to Station Street Village, schools, trains, Yarra River trails, parklands, sporting facilities and the Eastern Freeway.
