Immerse yourself in reversed living with splendid views from your elevated position. This property offers a mix of indoor and outdoor spaces perfect for both entertainment and relaxation. The garden settings will leave you breathless as you take a refreshing dip in the salt-chlorinated pool. The fully-framed glass rumpus room overlooks the pool and flows seamlessly to the intimate outdoor alfresco enveloped by draping wisteria. The front yard is fully secured and safe with high fencing and security gates, perfect for children who want to run around and play outdoors. The upper level boasts a recently renovated kitchen with pressed metal splashback, quality appliances, and built-in coffee machine. Extend your living space to the decking area with a built-in fireplace, where plantation shutters blur the boundaries between indoor and outdoor living. Plus, there's a built-in BBQ connected to Mains gas for outdoor culinary delights. This property is conveniently positioned within walking distance to esteemed schools and Berwick Village's cafes and shopping. Additional features: Versatile floor plan 832m² elevated parcel of land Located in Olde Berwick Abundant natural light Beautiful wall-paper accents Oversized double garage with storage space Room available in front yard to store a caravan or boat Shed for your needs
