Boasting an immediately inviting street appeal, this free standing 2 bedroom Edwardian home combines charming period detail with modern comfort and offers an elegant entry into a prized Richmond locale. Discover a grand introduction to the home with high ceilings and a traditional arched hallway branching off to a perfect pair of light-filled bedrooms. The home impressively opens up to reveal a surprisingly spacious living and dining area, underpinned by a light filled kitchen graced with a European oven/cooktop, a dual-drawer Fisher and Paykel dishwasher and sunny courtyard outlook. Enhanced by the warmth of eastern sunlight at the rear, venture outside to a brick-paved courtyard with more than enough space to enjoy stylish alfresco entertaining. Key period features integral to the Edwardian era include a traditional verandah entrance, picket fence, timber-arched hallway, decorative ceilings, exquisite lead-lighting and Baltic Pine floorboards. • 2 large and light bedrooms, main with walk-in robes, open fireplace and air conditioner • Renovated bathroom with a rainfall/hand-held shower and stone-topped vanity • Concealed laundry with a sink • Living with split-system cooling plus a gas wall heater • Landscaped low-maintenance garden at front and garden shed at the rear • Roller blinds and textured curtains • Opportunity to elevate and renovate at the rear if desired (STCA) • Permit car parking available (STCA) Zoned to the highly sought-after Melbourne Girls' College, walk to city-bound trams on Swan Street, Burnley trains, the MCG, Yarra River parkland and a feast of popular cafes, bars and restaurants. Easy to love, exceptional to live in and effortless to rent out, make your move into a prized and tranquil neighbourhood today. For more information, please contact Andrew Car today.
