

51 Dundas Street, Lancefield, Vic 3435

Sold Residential Land

Saturday, 9 December 2023

51 Dundas Street, Lancefield, Vic 3435

Area: 1003 m2

Type: Residential Land

Zacton Mussared
0458988483

Scott Pickering
0458988568

$405,000

Introducing 51 Dundas Street, a vacant block of land nestled in a serene location on 1003 sqm (approx.). This fantastic property offers you the perfect canvas to design and build your dream home (STCA). Situated on a quiet no-through road, this prime parcel of land presents an excellent opportunity to create your ideal living space in a tranquil setting. Imagine waking up to the sounds of nature and enjoying the peaceful ambiance this location has to offer. Water and sewer connections already on the property. You'll have the freedom to connect to electricity, gas, and telephone with ease as these services are available in the street, making the process of constructing your dream home hassle-free. The highlight of this property is its incredible proximity to various amenities. Families will appreciate the convenience of having schools within walking distance, ensuring a seamless daily routine for children. The local shops, cafes, pubs, and brewery are also just a short stroll away, providing you with options for leisurely outings and socializing with friends and family. Immerse yourself in the charming community of Lancefield, where you can savor a relaxed country lifestyle while still enjoying modern conveniences. With an abundance of open space and a welcoming atmosphere, Lancefield offers the perfect balance between tranquility and connectivity to major towns, Melbourne airport and CBD easily commutable. Embark on an exciting journey to build your dream home (STCA). The possibilities are endless!