A lifetime of happy memories awaits in this renovated triple-gabled Queenslander. Presiding over a 620m² block in a highly sought-after enclave, it shines with a harmonious blend of classic and contemporary charm. Polished hardwood floors, ornate cornices and casement windows hint at the home's heritage, while a modern kitchen and living and dining zone open to an expansive entertaining deck, catering perfectly to today's lifestyle. Gather with guests on this impressive 45m² alfresco area (screened for enhanced privacy), or retreat to a cosy firepit for a night under the stars. Part of a fully fenced, leafy backyard, kids and pets have space to explore and play, with plumbing for a future pool. Spanning a generous double-storey, the versatile floorplan promises ample, light-filled space for everyone to enjoy. Across the top floor, an oversized master suite with walk-in robe and sleek ensuite beckons, 5th bedroom and powder room for entertaining upstairs. Three further bedrooms with built-in robes, an office/study and stylish main bathroom are downstairs, complemented by a second living area with convenient backyard access. Positioned within a prized, family-friendly enclave, you'll love the lifestyle it delivers. Explore the beautiful local scenery via the Downfall Creek Bikeway or head to A.R.C Hill Park to enjoy the outdoor fitness amenities and playground. Schools, public transport and cafes are also within walking distance, with major shopping precincts within a 3.5km radius. Make this timeless beauty a must-see – arrange your inspection today.
