Sitting proudly on a large corner block in the local favourite 'Love Street' is this charming federation home. Behind the pretty white picket fence, the staircase greets you with a warm welcome leading you up to the return verandah with open arms. Stepping inside, you will be transported back to a bygone era, where desirable features from around a century ago have been retained such as soaring high ceilings, elegant dado boards, cute French doors, spacious bedrooms, coloured-glass timber windows, a cozy fireplace, and a plethora of other delightful features awaiting your discovery. Both the kitchen and bathroom have been updated ensuring that all of the appliances and modern conveniences are at your fingertips alongside a slow combustion fireplace in the dining area. A freshly painted deck awaits outside overlooking the expansive yard that is inclusive of a double garage and easy access with the corner position. Homes in such great condition from this era and on a corner block are scarce, so don't miss out on the opportunity to make the address of your next home 51 Love Street! - Large 809m² corner block in R3 zoning (Development potential STCA) - Double garage with side access - Only 9 minutes to the heart of Hunter Valley Wine Country and Vineyards (9.5km) - Only 3 minutes to Cessnock CBD (1.4km) - Walking distance to Cessnock Hospital (450m) - Schools within just a 4 minute drive (2.2km) - 57 minutes to Newcastle (50.1km) and 1h 55 minutes to Sydney (161.4km)
