Welcome to 51 Meredith Ave, where practicality and warmth meet in this unique home that is completely freestanding and where every room exudes a friendly ambiance. A beautiful residence with minimal upkeep, would cater to those who appreciate convenience and tranquillity, or for those prioritising education the home is zoned for Brighton Secondary School, known for its special interest programs in music, volleyball, and STEM. Three bedrooms in total, each designed for comfort and style. The main bedroom is spacious with own ensuite including double shower alcove and walk-in-robe. Meanwhile, the second and third bedrooms feature built-in-ropes, providing smart storage solutions without compromising on aesthetics. The interiors unfold with two distinct living areas, offering both formal and relaxed spaciousness. The rear living area connects to a gloss white kitchen, complete with a stone bench top, Miele stainless-steel appliances, a handy dishwasher, and a 'wake me up' coffee machine. As if that's not enough to captivate, enjoy the elevated atmosphere created by 10ft ceilings throughout. Stay comfortable year-round with ducted reverse cycle air-conditioning, complemented by new plush carpeting and sparkling floor tiling. In addition to there's a security system for peace of mind. Step outside to the pleasure of alfresco living under the main roof and the charm of a north-facing rear garden. It's made even more convenient with a watering system to simplify maintenance. The garage, equipped with an electronic roller door and a handy drive-through feature, enhances the practicality of this inviting space.
