Offered to the market for the very first time in almost three decades, number 51 O'Dell Street has provided a wonderful family lifestyle for its current owners. Set in a blue-chip extremely desired locale, its generously proportioned living areas provide a fine balance of super casual and semi-formal living areas complimented with 5 bedrooms allowing for the growing family. Its rock solid construction circa 1977 ensures confidence of an era when homes were built to last a lifetime. Vehicle parking is plentiful with onsite parking for 6 vehicles or indeed the boat and caravan. Further enhancing the lovely property is a separate studio/ flat together with workshop for endless tinkering for the hobbyist. A truly superb residence which will ensure a tranquil and fun lifestyle for many years to come.
