Introducing 51 Old Toowoomba Road, One Mile – a charming residence exuding character and warmth. This property offers a distinctive appeal with its ornate breezeways, showcasing a blend of timeless design and modern comfort. The home features three bedrooms, each uniquely designed to provide a comfortable and welcoming atmosphere, with an additional sleepout that adds versatility to the living spaces. High ceilings contribute to an open and airy ambiance, creating an inviting backdrop for residents and guests alike. Crafted with enduring quality, the residence boasts timber V-jay board throughout, exemplifying a classic aesthetic that seamlessly merges with the charm of a timber-clad exterior. The original kitchen preserves the authenticity of the home, while the retro bathroom, complete with a bathtub, adds a touch of nostalgia. Accessibility is a key feature, with a ramp leading to the downstairs area, enhancing convenience and inclusivity. The air-conditioned main room ensures a comfortable living environment, attuned to modern expectations. Situated on a substantial and flood-free 773m² block, the property offers not only ample space but also the peace of mind that comes with a secure location. Side access further adds to the practicality of the home, providing options for additional parking or potential development. In summary, 51 Old Toowoomba Road, One Mile, is a residence that harmoniously blends charming character with practical features. With its classic design elements, high ceilings, and a spacious block, this property presents an opportunity for a delightful living experience in a sought-after location.
