Welcome to 51 Ralston Street located in the heart of West End. This character property is ready for you to make it your home. Beautiful timber floorboards, French doors and high ceilings give the Queenslander Cottage its original charm. The home is designed for maximum airflow in summer, with plenty of windows to allow cross breezes throughout and a stunning front verandah. With a fully fenced yard and tons of storage downstairs, this property offers both character and functionality. Perfectly located only a stone's throw from Castletown Shopping Centre and the Townsville Showgrounds, this home is only a 3-minute drive to the CBD, the Queensland Country Bank Stadium as well as the Reid Park Pits. The more active person will appreciate the many walking tracks of Castle Hill right at your front door, while the wonders of The Strand, Palmers and Flinders Street are not far for an afternoon walk with a view or well-deserved dining experience.
