This Classic East Coast Beach House was constructed around 1950 and is a short walk from unspoiled and picturesque beaches. The house features two bedrooms, a sunroom, a bathroom, and an open-plan dining/kitchen/ living area with hardwood timber floorboards. Furthermore, a separate shed with an open space, a bathroom, and a kitchenette leads to a covered entertaining area. It is ideal for extended families, those working from home or a teenage retreat. Landscaped gardens surround the property with an old mango tree, which adds to the property's tropical ambience. Valla village has two coffee shops -perfect places to meet your friends for morning catch-up, pre-school, pub, chemist and parks. The coastal area is renowned for its beautiful walks on the beach, watching the sunrise, surfing or taking time out of your busy life to enjoy the natural surroundings, this is the perfect spot for a holiday home or your new home..Valla lies midway between Sydney and Brisbane, 10 minutes from Nambucca Heads or 30 Coffs Harbour.
