Welcome to this beautifully presented, quality brick home, standing on a level block in popular East Wynyard, that is within close proximity of the local beach and Bruce's Cafe. When you step inside, you will be immediately impressed with the open planned living areas which include a stylish kitchen with lovely breakfast bar, inviting dining space, spacious lounge all complete with reverse cycle air-conditioning, and near new carpets and furnishings throughout. There are three very good-sized bedrooms, master with delightful en-suite and walk-in robe, second and third with large built-in robes, very appealing main bathroom and storage/linen space plus large double garage with internal access. There is also a very private undercover entertaining area, secure and very well-fenced backyard, and 20 solar panels. This is the perfect opportunity to purchase an outstanding low-maintenance residence in popular East Wynyard.
