A glorious country retreat on 57 acres (23.07 hectares) of stunning bush vistas and rolling hills "Carrandor" is sure to capture your heart from the moment you arrive. The property includes an inviting and well-presented four-bedroom home nestled amidst delightful gardens and majestic native trees. The much-loved property offers complete seclusion and beautiful views from its numerous outdoor living spaces which have hosted many family gatherings including parties, Christmas celebrations and even a wedding. The home includes a cosy lounge with open fireplace, and an open plan family and meals area with wood fire, R/C SS and ceiling fan adjoining the functional and well-appointed kitchen. The main bedroom includes an ensuite, WIR and sliding door to the expansive deck. Bedrooms three and four enjoy beautiful morning light and also include BIRS and sliding doors to the veranda. Bedroom four has a BIR and could also serve as a study. Additional features include a central bathroom and laundry, gas ducted heating, four car carport and 22 panel solar system. Outside is just as impressive with numerous vehicle and storage sheds, hay shed, machinery shed, dog-proof yard, three dams, ample tank water storage and orchard. Located just minutes from Broadford with its schools, shops, train station and easy access to the Hume Freeway this is a peaceful and picturesque home within easy reach of Melbourne. We invite your inspection by appointment.
