Style meets lifestyle in this beautifully appointed apartment, holding an optimal north facing position within the resort style 'Nautilus Pacific', security building in a contemporary block on the edge of Dee Why's thriving urban village. A spacious two-bedroom layout is designed to embrace the outdoors with all rooms connecting to a sunny full-length balcony with views reaching the oceans horizon. A streamlined kitchen presides over the living space and is equipped with stone benchtops, stainless steel oven, Smeg gas cooktop and Bosch dishwasher. The well-conceived layout reveals a free-flowing living/dining domain which is bathed in beautiful sunshine and offers seamless indoor and outdoor connection which invites relaxation. The ideal floorplan delivers great separation between the social and sleeping domains, with two large bedrooms, both equipped with built-ins, while the master features a spa bath ensuite. A home of undeniable appeal with premium inclusions throughout, designer marble bathrooms and internal laundry with dryer. It presents the ultimate in effortless coastal living, with lift access to 2 secured car parks, while residents enjoy a resort-style heated swimming pool with direct entry to Pittwater Road for quick access to amenities. It is located to promote superb walkability, placed less than 100m to express B-line CBD/Manly buses, shops, cafes, restaurants, plus a brisk bike ride to the sand, surf and seaside dining strip.
