In sync with the rhythm of inner-city living, this two-bedroom apartment is a canvas of comfort and contemporary living, where the city meets the Bay and every detail invites you to embrace a lifestyle of ease and sophistication. High ceilings in the open-plan, light-filled living and dining areas create a spacious and inviting atmosphere, while timber floors accentuate the appeal, creating an ambience that resonates with both style and comfort. Overlooking the living area, the chic white stone kitchen is equipped with a gas cooktop and breakfast bar, beckoning casual dining or cheerful gatherings, as two balconies extend the living zone outside, providing an outdoor escape with views, perfect for your morning coffee or evening relaxation. Ensuring well-balanced comfort, the two bedrooms feature built-in robes, and the sleek bathroom, appreciating dual access from the main bedroom, incorporates convenient laundry provisions. Further enhanced with reverse-cycle air conditioning, parking for one on title plus visitor parking, and secure entry, this lifestyle haven sets the bar with desirable proximity to Port Melbourne's finest. Situated 300m (approx.) from the foreshore, and one block from thriving Bay Street, explore excellent cafes and restaurants, enjoy the convenience of shops and services at your door, as well as easy access to city-bound transport, the CBD and M1 freeway.
