Occupying an elevated fourth floor position high in the exclusive 'Gweedore', an iconic 1959 strata building, this exceptional apartment offers a lifestyle unrivalled in convenience or opportunity. Neatly presented with original interiors, the home is immediately liveable as is, yet would benefit from selective refurbishment to meet modern tastes. The apartment opens to embrace the natural sunshine of a prized north-western aspect, with stunning views that stretch from the harbour heads to Garden Island and the city skyline. The perfect lifestyle abode, it is just a short walk to the cafes, bookshops and restaurants of Macleay Street.
