Not very often you get a nice little cottage that has been renovated to a high standard. Upon entering this home the first feature to pop out at you is the polished floor boards that run throughout the house. To the left you have the main hallway which the three good sized bedrooms run off. To the right you have the open living area with a/c for cooling. The kitchen is a real standout with the high gloss black cupboards, Gas oven, Stainless steel range hood and timber bench tops to give a real quality look. Off the kitchen area you have the dining area near the rear of the home, further towards the back you have the laundry and toilet. The rear of the property has a large shed area and small patio area. This is definitely a property needs to be seen to really appreciate it.
