

52 Hughes Avenue, Mascot, NSW 2020

Sold House

Thursday, 5 October 2023

52 Hughes Avenue, Mascot, NSW 2020

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Aaron Del Monte
0447144434

$1,400,000

Step into the welcoming embrace of 52 Hughes Ave, Mascot, where effortless living meets boundless potential. This charming semi-detached home, crafted with enduring double brick, stands as a testament to quality and longevity. Nestled on a picturesque tree-lined street, the world is at your doorstep. A leisurely stroll leads you to Mascot Railway Station, city-bound buses, bustling shopping outlets, and a treasure trove of amenities. Convenience, after all, is the cornerstone of this residence. Behold the treasures within: a capacious lock-up garage, complete with convenient bathroom facilities. Imagine the possibilities - a future granny flat or a sanctuary for teenagers to call their own. Ascend to the attic, where extra storage awaits, providing a sanctuary for cherished belongings. Dreams of expansion? The canvas is yours to paint. With potential to extend upwards (STCA), this home welcomes your vision and aspirations. Three generously-proportioned bedrooms offer space to grow and thrive. The heart of the home lies in the modern kitchen, a space that beckons gatherings and culinary adventures. From here, gaze out to the rear yard, a tranquil haven awaiting your touch. For those with a fleet, the side driveway accommodates up to 4 or 5 vehicles, crowned by a covered carport. This is a dwelling that truly understands your needs. Bask in the glow of a north-facing backyard, effortlessly manageable and a canvas for your green thumb to flourish. Imagine the gatherings, the laughter, and the cherished moments that will grace this space. This is more than a home; it's an invitation to shape your future. Whether you're a growing family seeking roots or a discerning investor eyeing potential, this is a must-see. Your next chapter begins here, at 52 Hughes Ave, Mascot."