Are you finding the established market is getting harder to afford. Why not build your home, in the quaint hills suburb of Chidlow. With building times shortening and supply issues improving, building is a viable option. This level block is located only a few minutes walk to local shops and the famous Chidlow Tavern. If you can see yourself enjoying the friendship of a welcoming community and a yearning to be close to nature this block is worth considering. Lightly treed and almost ready to build, power and water are available. Blocks in this central location are hard to come by and rarely offered to market, call today to arrange a viewing.
