Welcome to your new home, a light-filled abode offering an abundance of space and comfort for a wide range of buyers. A great-sized yard and a central location will delight families while renovators will love this home's charm, character and potential. For investors, easy access to shops, schools, parks and the Tanilba Bay foreshore will impress future tenants. Inside, the layout offers a large L-shaped living room with views over the front yard. A separate dining area is nestled next to the spacious kitchen with ample storage and electric appliances. The three bedrooms all have quick access to the main bathroom and there is a laundry with external access to complete the floorplan. Outside, a covered alfresco is ready for entertaining while the kids and pets run free in the large, fenced yard set against a bushland backdrop. A single lock-up garage, a carport and plenty of off-street parking are also on offer, along with ceiling fans, air-conditioning and a garden shed.
