A timeless period home in tranquil Terang, offering comfort for families today and growth for tomorrow. A charming façade and a welcoming entrance hall, lending itself to a period style and creating an impactful first impression complimented by a spacious open plan living, and kitchen provides a dynamic space for modern life. Featuring four spacious bedrooms all featuring B-I-R serviced by ducted heating and fans, ensures comfort 12 months of the year. A large second living space, family sized bathroom with stand-up shower and separate bath, generous laundry, office and alfresco add to the allure of this magnificent property. A large two-car garage with workshop and additional shedding are ideal for small business owners and operators, whilst the one and a half-acre (approx.) allotment provides a significant subdivision opportunity for any savvy investor. Entry level developments sites attract a lot of interest, be sure to register yours to avoid missing out!
