Located in the gorgeous village of Burringbar is 53 Hunter St, A substantial family home sitting high on a tree lined 1 acre allotment. With generous living areas and high ceilings, there is a real feeling of space right throughout the home. 3 bedrooms have built-ins whilst the main has a walk in robe and doors opening onto the deck. Both the ensuite and main bathroom have been stunningly renovated. Perfectly suited to entertaining, a large covered deck sits adjacent to the kitchen and runs along the front of the home on the upper level. A great place to sit with family or friends taking in the breezes and gazing out above the trees to the hills in the distance. Walk from the eastern end of the deck out to the inground pool and surrounding paved area. Spend your hot summer days swimming and relaxing poolside. Car accommodation is provided on the lower level of the home with a double garage along with plenty of additional storage space. If there's a tradie in the family or you just need extra space for your boat, camper trailer or a workshop, an oversized 2 bay colorbond shed (5.6 x 9.9m), is set in the top corner of the block. Complete with it's own access from the road and plenty parking space in front. The block itself is fantastic with a range of established trees and gardens, some gently sloping areas and plenty of level space for a fire pit or to kick a soccer ball. All in all, this is a superb all round package...a substantial home, great outlook, spacious flood free block, a pool and a shed...there's something here for everyone.
