Take advantage of this rare opportunity to acquire in one of Lalor's most popular locations. Only meters from Pacific Epping & Costco Shopping centre, train station, bus routes and every other amenity this suburb has to offer, literally at your fingertips. Set in a quiet street, this double fronted residence comprises 3 bedrooms and a newly renovated central bathroom, with separate toilet. The lounge features an attractive bay window with a surprising amount of living space leading to a newly renovated kitchen with stainless steel appliances, overlooking the light filled meals area. Step outside to a large backyard, perfect for entertaining with friends and family whilst the kids enjoy the space and convenience of a generous size yard. Other features include heating and cooling, driveway access to rear remote garage and easy to maintain established gardens. If you're searching for that perfectly located property or perhaps a home for the family that offers you every amenity only a stone's throw away, then you won't want to miss out on this little gem.
