

53 Lambeth Street, Kensington, Vic 3031

Sold House

Monday, 30 October 2023

53 Lambeth Street, Kensington, Vic 3031

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Adam Hicks
0438066259

David Bignoux
0405126355

$1,215,000

If there's ever been a great Australian dream then this could just about be it. Beyond a picturesque fence and a beautiful garden lies a simply stunning terrace home that boasts all the style and sophistication synonymous with modern living. Towering high ceilings and classy Federation fire places are hallmarks of a light-filled layout that includes quality flooring and bedrooms flooded with natural light. A magazine worthy bathroom is flush with flawless finishes, while the grand hallway culminates with a spectacular open plan lounge with gas log fire place and a classy contemporary kitchen. Stone benches, stainless steel appliances and an abundance of soft-close storage highlight an exquisite kitchen which overlooks a good size dining area and magnificent French-style sliding doors that open out to a private courtyard with covered seating, a garden shed and secure roller door off-street car parking. Both elegant and refined, this spectacular offering boasts a luxurious location within walking distance to Kensington village shops, cafes, restaurants and bars, Macaulay and Newmarket train stations, as well as enjoying proximity to local schools, Melbourne Zoo, Royal Park, Flemington Racecourse, Racecourse Rd, Mt Alexander Rd, Citylink and the Melbourne CBD.