Welcome to 53 Palaroo Street, This spacious home is perfect for you and your loved ones, offering a blend of convenience and potential that's hard to resist. This property is only walking distance from the Murray River and allows for leisurely strolls and outdoor activities in a picturesque setting. This residence boasts three generously sized bedrooms, and a fourth room that can either serve as a fourth bedroom or study. You'll also find built-in robes in the Master and second bedrooms, providing ample storage for your belongings. The heart of this home is undoubtedly the kitchen, featuring a large double oven and a dishwasher, making meal preparation a breeze. Whether you're hosting family gatherings or simply enjoying a cozy dinner, this kitchen has got you covered. One of the many perks of this property is the low-maintenance gardens. This means you can spend more time enjoying the beautiful outdoors and less time tending to the garden. The backyard is securely fenced, offering a safe space for the pets and little ones to play freely. This property also features a double garage and a smaller garden shed, both concreted and powered for your convenience. This home combines practicality with comfort and is ready for you to add your personal touch.
