Of a mediterranean influence, this magical property will have you feeling like being on holidays all year round. Freshly renovated, inside and out - there is nothing to do other than unpack and jump in the pool. The home features a split level design featuring raked ceilings, exposed beams and loads of natural light. Accommodation is taken care of by way of three spacious bedrooms - the main with air conditioning and an ensuite, all rooms come with built ins. The Kitchen and dining room is air conditioned, and flow seamlessly from inside to out making entertaining a breeze. From the sparkling inground pool and spa, to the large, north facing deck or the cosy lounge room complete with fireplace, there is more than enough space and zones to accommodate your family. Next to the home is a detached studio space, featuring a large living space, kitchenette and bathroom, this would be ideal for guest accommodation or potentially additional income. Nestled into leafy surrounds, this low maintenance property is only 10 minutes to the CBD of Lismore and offers handy access to Eltham or Clunes and the coast is just a short drive away. Be swift to secure such a feature packed and well located property, a rare find in todays market.
