An extraordinary opportunity to purchase a large and upgraded brick veneer family home in a quality location and enjoy your new surroundings from day one. This very private home includes a generous lounge room with split system reverse cycle air-conditioning, fully equipped open kitchen and meals space with gas and electric cooking, great cupboard and prep space plus formal and casual dining space. Also included are four double bedrooms with a walk-in robe and full ensuite to the main and built-in robes to all the others. The tiled family bathroom has a full bath and separate shower recess, the large laundry has built-in storage and there is a very handy home office space. Tempting extras include a next level amazing weatherproof nine by five and a half metre entertaining area, an under main roof double carport, garden shed, established tidy gardens, under deck storage, excellent fencing and access to Laidlaw Park.
