Nestled on a large corner block within low-maintenance landscaped gardens, this elevated three bedroom residence merges luxurious interior spaces with high-end fixtures and fittings to deliver exceptional livability in a peaceful and private setting. High ceilings and expanses of glass promote natural light flow and a sense of space, while warm timber floors, electric blinds, and the extensive use of stone, double glazed windows and designer décor create a wonderful warmth throughout. The brilliantly articulated and beautifully proportioned floorplan delivers family functionality with effortless ease. Upon entry, the sun-drenched open plan living and dining domain opens out through glass sliders to an expansive partly covered deck for relaxed alfresco living amidst private, leafy surrounds. A sublime gourmet kitchen unites stone finishes, quality appliances, generous breakfast bar, and walk in pantry for refined daily living and effortless entertaining. Still on the ground level a guest master suite or third bedroom is complimented by its own luxe ensuite and built-in robes. A timber staircase leads up to the first floor where a generous light-filled retreat precedes two generous bedrooms. The master bedroom features built-in robes, study nook and sumptuous ensuite. The second bedroom again offers built-in robes and is adjacent to the sleek family bathroom with deep designer tub. Immaculately presented, this sanctuary of style also includes video intercom, split-system air conditioners throughout, ground-floor powder room, fitted laundry, plentiful storage, and internally accessed single remote garage. Freestanding for privacy the address is also set in the esteemed district with zoning for Wheelers Hill Secondary College and Wheelers Hill Primary, minutes to Caulfield Grammar, walking distance to Jells Park with its natural beauty, walking tracks, Glen Waverley Golf Club, The Glen Shopping centre and easy to access to both Monash Freeway and Eastlink.
