Did you miss out on this home? An Off Market Opportunity is available - Enquire Now for Exclusive Details A stunning family home with the benefit of a detailed and thorough renovation to create something special with ocean views from both living levels. The new master suite on the top floor is five-star quality, modeled on our best resorts, with an enormous fitted robe with feature lighting and an all marble bathroom opening to the balcony and bedroom. The views across the park through the pines to Rottneest and beyond are sublime. Sunsets are beautiful and the way the morning and evening light cascades across the home is captivating. The creation of the separate flat/studio that opens to the pool and enjoys gated access to the park, gives this residence an edge for the new owner. There are five bedrooms in all, plus a fitted study. Four living areas, including the alfresco area opening to the pool and adjacent to a private bar. There is also a generous three-car garage and storage area for your vehicles. The metamorphosis of this home in such a quiet street will leave you breathless. Do yourself a favour and discover Taronga Way's best kept secret on the Park, on a spacious 856 sqm land holding. Time to get excited - moving into your new home in time for Christmas is a real option here!
