

53 Thompson Street, Drummoyne, NSW 2047

CobdenHayson.

Sold House

Friday, 3 November 2023

53 Thompson Street, Drummoyne, NSW 2047

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Area: 442 m2

Type: House

Mia Fredrix
0416223699

Chad Egan
0408884353

Contact agent

A property of rare distinction and one of Drummoyne's landmark residences, The Laurels was built c1896 in the ornate Queen Anne style and is set amid established English-style gardens on a private 442sqm approx with rear lane. Architecturally significant with a fine pedigree and showcasing the fine period craftsmanship of its heritage, the two-storey home holds a dress-circle address opposite Drummoyne Public School with the Bay Run at one end of the street and Drummoyne Park at the other. Timeless elegance combines with contemporary comfort to offer a family home of enduring style and substance. Stroll to Cafe at the Round and St Marks Catholic Primary or walk across Brett Park to Birkenhead Point Shopping Centre, one of Sydney's best-loved retail destinations.- Grand freestanding manor home in the heart of Drummoyne- Formerly the home of Drummoyne's first female mayor - Gracious foyer, beautiful stained glass windows, 3.6m ceilings- 4 large bedrooms with built-in robes and a study or nursery- King-sized main with a north facing balcony and walk-in robe- Lounge with a Jetmaster gas fireplace, elegant dining room- French doors to a sunny herringbone-paved courtyard - Corian kitchen with breakfast bar, Gaggenau gas cooker - Glass-framed casual living/family room opens to the garden- 2 bathrooms, 1 on each level, separate internal laundry- Double parking, reverse cycle air-conditioning - 4 original fireplaces, Kauri boards, original butler's staircase - 400m stroll to Brett Park, 650m to Harris Farm Markets