This classic weatherboard 50/60s era home enters the market as an exceptional opportunity for those seeking an inner-city project at an entry level. This original weatherboard-clad home boasts a prime location within walking distance to Lake Weeroona, Bendigo Hospital, local pubs, cafes, and public transport. Moreover, it's just a quick 4-minute drive to the bustling heart of Bendigo CBD. Featuring two bedrooms, one bathroom, and an original kitchen, this property is a renovator's delight. Unlock the potential within these walls and create the home of your dreams. The canvas is yours to paint, and the possibilities are endless. Situated on a generous 562 sqm block, this home offers more than just a great location. The sizable yard provides ample space for kids and pets to play, making it an ideal retreat in the heart of the city. Additionally, a separate garage workshop adds functionality to the property, catering to those with a penchant for DIY projects or needing extra storage space. Whether you're a seasoned renovator, astute investor, or a first-time homebuyer looking to make their mark, 53 Thunder St is the ideal opportunity. Seize the chance to transform this property into a unique, personalized space that reflects your style and preferences. Don't miss out on this chance to secure your piece of inner-city living.
