Rich in traditional character, revealing tempting readiness for development (STCA) or further updating whenever so desired, this three bedroom, two bathroom home's past, present and future each hold exceptional appeal on a quiet, convenient corner block featuring second frontage to Aloha Street. Central living and dining areas that retain their original floorboards are complemented by a previously renovated kitchen equipped with stainless steel appliances. Enjoy these spaces today, take your time to settle in, soak up the sun in the north facing outdoor retreat at the rear and appreciate the added asset of a secure single garage. Proximity to Vernon Street village, schools, Spotswood station and city access promises a rewarding outcome in a family friendly pocket that still has great growth potential.
