In the heart of Bassendean, 53 West Road is not your average house—it's a practical haven designed for modern living. The front yard is immaculate, and there's enough off-street parking for your everyday convenience. Step inside to a kitchen built for efficiency. With two ovens, a dishwasher, and ample storage, it's a functional space for everyday meals and gatherings. Tiled floors in the main living areas make for easy cleaning, while roller shutters and double curtains add a touch of practicality to the windows. The bedrooms feature cozy carpets, creating a comfortable retreat. The master suite comes with its own bathroom, and the additional bedrooms provide the versatility you need. Movie nights take on a straightforward tone with the separate theatre room. The house adapts to your comfort needs throughout the year with evaporative ducted air conditioning and split systems. Outside, the landscaped backyard is a green thumbs escape, perfect for relaxing after a busy day. Convenience is key, with the town center, school, eatery spots like The Last Crumb and Berties all within walking distance.
