Great opportunity to secure a large family home in a terrific location directly opposite Anzac Park which leads to the new Pump track and fenced children's playground area! The owner will even include garden maintenance so all you need to do is enjoy the Tom Price family lifestyle this property can offer. The property has everything you need with lovely shady trees, undercover carport for four vehicles, side access for your camper trailer and even a veggie patch and chook pen! The house itself offers large tiled living areas, great size kitchen with plenty of cupboard space and room for fridge freezer and chest freezer. All the bedrooms are excellent sizes with built in robes and complete with a spacious bathroom with separate shower and bath. Outside is a great size patio area overlooking your tranquil established gardens, as mentioned you even get the benefit for the large veggie patch and chook pen for the kids to enjoy. Simply a lovely maintained family home in a terrific location! Be quick this won't last long! Enquire now to register your interest or arrange an inspection!  Note the container to the left of the property is not for the tenants use Disclaimer: Crawford Realty makes every effort to ensure the information provided on this property is deemed to be correct at the time of publishing.
