Life is pretty rough here at 535 Mountain River Road Mountain River. If you love sitting in a river on a hot day or listening to the river meandering past from your lounge room, bedroom, shed or in fact any part of the property then this property is a must for you. With immaculate gardens, sheds, pasture, bush and river access this is a wonderful property giving you the taste and feel of country living yet only ½ hour from central Hobart. Together with a solid brick home, open plan kitchen dining and a separate lounge room the house is in great condition and ready to move straight into. The double garage workshop is a really good setup close to the home and easy to drive into. There are several yards and paddocks as well as a good size dam two small garden sheds & a small barn. Just over 3 acres allows for a real home farm if you wish, with the possibilities of sheep, goats, alpacas or even a horse. With space for veggie patches and possibly a small orchard the options are endless.
