A wonderful discovery, this is the sweetest weatherboard home you'll find on the market today. Nicely presented, with no body corporate and on its own title. Nestled in a key lifestyle location within walking distance of leafy parkland, Liverpool Road bus transport, and the convenience of Churinga Shopping Centre, this property suits first homebuyers, discerning downsizers, and savvy investors alike. The 2-bedrooms provided in this inviting residence feature built-in robes and the accompanying bathroom is beautifully presented and enriched with a soaking tub. The heart of this home is the open concept lounge, dining area, and kitchen with polished timber floors, white cabinetry, freestanding gas cooker, and welcoming breakfast bar. The seamless flow out to the covered alfresco ensures entertaining will be a joy year-round. With featured extras including split system heating/cooling units and a single carport, this is a marvellous residence for a minimal maintenance lifestyle. Treat yourself to a tour today.
