

54 Brookland Loop, Dunsborough, WA 6281

Sold House

Monday, 14 August 2023

54 Brookland Loop, Dunsborough, WA 6281

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 630 m²

Type: House

$780,000

Nestled on a lovely street, this remarkable property boasts a 4 bedroom, 2 bathroom home, complemented by a fantastic powered shed, a generous block size, and even an outdoor shower perfect for post-surfing bliss. The home exudes warmth and relaxation, providing a personal haven for you and the family. And beyond the walls of the house lies a paradise for hobbyists and outdoor enthusiasts alike. The great shed presents endless possibilities, from a workshop for artisans to a storage space for your cherished possessions. Embrace your creativity and turn this versatile area into your personal sanctuary. The generous block size is an invitation to create your own oasis, particularly given its vegetable garden and chookyard space. Imagine lazy summer afternoons spent in the shade of tall trees, hosting barbecues with friends and family on the deck. The possibilities are limited to your imagination only so bring your dreams to life. For those who seek solace after riding the waves, the outdoor shower to rinse off the salt and sand is a must. It's the perfect way to extend your connection with nature and experience a seamless transition from the waves to the comfort of your own home. Located on a quiet street, this property offers peace and privacy, ensuring a serene environment to unwind and recharge. Yet, it's just a stone's throw away from vibrant amenities Dunsborough offers, including local shops, restaurants, and entertainment options. You'll have the best of both worlds. Don't miss the opportunity to make this property your own. Discover the joys of living in a peaceful neighborhood, with a delightful 4 bedroom, 2 bathroom house, a versatile shed, a spacious block, and an outdoor shower to complete your ocean lifestyle. Embrace the harmony today!