So well thought through, everything you could want is packed into this loving 3 bedroom, 1 bathroom home. The garage is oversized with room for cars and workshop and both doors are operated with remote control. Recently updated, the new kitchen, featuring induction cooktop and fresh white cabinetry looks out to the large undercover area. This outdoor area is useable all year round and boasts timber louvres to adjust airflow accordingly to weather. . Such a nice space to entertain in all year round. The large bathroom is tastefully renovated to suit any fussy buyer and the garden is beautiful also with established trees and veggie patches
