This charming home embodies a seamless blend of history and modern comfort, having undergone a tasteful renovation on a spacious block. Whether you seek a peaceful getaway or a place to call home, this property caters to both desires. This updated three-bedroom, one-bathroom cottage awaits your arrival. Step inside to discover an open-plan living area that immediately makes you feel at home. A comfortable lounge features a brick fireplace and split system heating and cooling. The renovated kitchen exudes country charm with its timber lined ceilings, appealing cabinetry and stainless-steel appliances. Three bedrooms await, two with robes. One features an original fireplace and split system heating and cooling. The stylish bathroom is light and bright and incorporates a European laundry. An enclosed double carport has plenty of storage and accesses the rear garden complemented by good shedding. The spacious garden offers established, low-maintenance vibrant gardens, providing a serene and picturesque setting. With a charming streetscape, convenience is key, as a quiet stroll leads directly to Beechworth's town centre, ensuring easy access to amenities and a tranquil lifestyle.
