Introducing a golden opportunity for those with vision and a love for transformation. Nestled on a sprawling 1,639m² block, this property offers an abundance of space and potential. Within its walls, you'll discover three spacious bedrooms complemented by a separate study - ideal for those working from home. Two functional bathrooms cater to all family needs, and the dual living zones provide ample space for relaxation and entertainment. Adding to the convenience is the internal laundry and ample storage spaces. The outdoor areas invite you with a welcoming front veranda, perfect for morning coffees, and a back outdoor entertainment area waiting for your personal touch. Further enhancing the property's value is its eco-friendly solar panels, reducing both your carbon footprint and energy bills. And for those who value privacy, a large front fence ensures security and seclusion from the street. While the home may require some love and care, its potential is undeniable. Whether you're a renovator searching for your next project or someone seeking vast land to craft your dream residence, this property presents an unbeatable opportunity.
