This delightful miners cottage is a true gem, oozing with charm and character. With its original pressed tin curved ceiling, this home is a unique blend of historical beauty and modern comfort. The perfect blend of old-world charm with updated living spaces. This property would make an ideal investment, a tranquil retreat or it could make a fantastic B&B! Located on the edge of Moonta, you'll be just moments away from Moonta Bay and the town's amenities, including shops, schools, and parks. The home boasts two good size bedrooms with a cosy feel, an updated kitchen and bathroom, making it perfect for comfortable living. The spacious block offers room for outdoor activities, gardening, or future expansion, and it comes complete with a large shed for all your storage needs. Don't miss the opportunity to own a piece of Moonta's history.
