Positioned within a stones throw from arguably one of the best local shopping precincts in Canberra, this three bedroom ensuite home is an attractive option for any young couple, young professional or first homebuyer wanting to secure a quality property. Internally the home is flooded with natural light being drawn in through large windows. The open plan kitchen and living area perfect for entertaining or just enjoying quiet nights on the couch. Sliding doors to the paved alfresco area create an excellent indoor/outdoor connection, with a perfect backyard for small pets to run around. Storage is plentiful, with each of the three bedrooms equipped with built-in robes, and the large master bedroom will tick the box on most buyers must-haves list, boasting a spacious ensuite. Casey is one of the Gungahlin regions most sought after suburbs for a reason, with excellent walking tracks, playgrounds, cafes, restaurants and an easy commute to Gungahlin town centre and the Canberra CBD.
