In a wonderfully family focused pocket only metres from Knox Central Primary School, vast Lewis Park and the Knox City Tennis Club, take your first thrilling step up the property ladder or invest with success in this sunny three bedroom home. Spread across one generous level and embraced by a lovely garden block where your children can play, polished floorboards complement the spacious living room and separate dining room with bright kitchen. Enjoy relaxing with friends on the under-cover deck and park comfortably in the double garage. Walking distance to Studfield Village and a little further to the outstanding dining, retail and entertainment at Westfield Knox, live moments from the preschool, kindergarten and Fairhills High School.
