Embark on an exclusive journey into the heart of artistic elegance and flexible living at the Sculpture Park in Australia. This is a rare chance to claim ownership of a segment of this creative haven that embodies the visionary touch of Stuart Purves, the principal of Australian Galleries Melbourne and Sydney. There is also opportunity to buy this property, or one or two of the separately titled adjacent properties. Situated at the forefront, a private circular driveway guides you to a two-story mudbrick masterpiece set on approx 4 acres. The open-plan living, dining, and kitchen area with concrete floors and a welcoming fireplace present panoramic views of lush gardens. A laundry and bathroom on the ground floor cater to daily life, while upstairs, three bedrooms with Fujitsu central cooling and a bathroom await. The master bedroom features its own balcony to relax and savor the views across the sculpture park. The home is equipped with 2 water tanks and 2 dams. Located in the sought-after hamlet of Porcupine Ridge only 10 minutes from Daylesford, a destination known for its culinary delights and natural beauty. Book your inspection now to witness the splendour of this unique property. The adjacent homes for sale separately are 554 Porcupine Ridge, Porcupine Ridge and 550 Porcupine Ridge, Porcupine Ridge.
