Unlock the door to your very own piece of history with an extraordinary Church. Nestled in the heart of Stormlea, Tasmania, this charming church, built in 1957, presents a truly unique opportunity to own a piece of the past on an expansive 4021sqm block. This small church boasts more than just its vintage appeal – with power already connected, the potential for transformation is boundless. Abundant natural light floods through the large windows lining each side, dancing upon the inviting timber floorboards, encapsulating the essence of serenity. Step into a world where the past meets limitless potential. This property offers more than ownership; it invites you to craft your dreams. Picture yourself establishing a business that thrives in this one-of-a-kind location or let your imagination roam as you consider the possibility of constructing your dream home (STCA). The surroundings are a symphony of beauty and tranquillity, with sweeping countryside vistas that embrace you in their embrace. Stormlea Church is the perfect canvas for a creative endeavour to take flight. The stage is set, and the possibilities are as vast as the sky above. Don't miss your chance to weave your aspirations into the very fabric of this remarkable historical gem. On route to popular Shipstern Bluff, including adjoining walks to Tunnel Bay and Cape Raoul. Approximately 10-minute drive to Nubeena town centre where there is a public school that caters for Kinder to Grade 12, Bendigo Bank, Medical Centre, Nursing Home, Pharmacy, IGA and Post Office. Stormlea is approximately 1 hour and 38 minutes' drive south-east of Hobart. We have received 2 offers that have been presented to the vendors.
