Perfectly located in Old East Albury, this charming red brick residence, built in 1928, has been superbly renovated and refurbished all whilst boasting a position close to cafes, restaurants, parks and all that Albury has to offer. The functional floor plan is perfect for those looking to enter the market or to downscale with two immaculately presented bedrooms and serviced by a central bathroom and separate toilet. Positioned to the rear of the home is the open plan kitchen and lounge boasting easy flowing access to the backyard and deck. The light filled kitchen has also been tastefully renovated and features Miele gas cooking, electric oven and dishwasher. Modern extras include split system heating and cooling units in each of the bedroom rooms. A large shed to the rear of the block with side access offers great car accommodation or can be used as a mancave, outdoor entertaining or however you choose. This immaculately presented home may also interest those looking for an investment or an AirBnB prospect. Perfectly positioned to offer low maintenance living whilst boasting a truly Central Albury location, 554 Schubach Street is a must to inspect.
